

The Kennesaw Parks & Recreation Department's Winter/Spring 2011 Program Guide is now available, featuring over 120 unique activities. This award-winning guide is published three times a year in April, August and December by the City of Kennesaw and contains information about sports, recreation, leisure classes and entertainment. The Winter/Spring edition features activities scheduled between January and May.

New youth and teen programs include acting, jump roping, juggling, teen etiquette, cooking, basic musicianship, dance, and art for children with special needs. New adult programs include creative writing, poetry, cardio-funk hip-hop, acting, wilderness survival, and bridal etiquette.

Returning favorites include KidzArt, gymnastics, SoccerTots and HoopsterTots, tennis, dance, Zumba, Tae Bo, Tai Chi, pottery, sign language, and a Biggest Loser Fitness Weight Loss Challenge for adults.

Special events are also featured in the guide, including a Book/CD/ DVD Swap on January 29, a Valentine's Western Hoe-Down Dance on February 12, Touch-a-Truck on March 19, and a Bunny Breakfast (NEW!) on April 9, immediately followed by the City's annual Easter Egg Scramble.

Visit www.kennesaw-ga.gov/pkrec to download the Program Guide, or pick-up a FREE copy at one of the following locations:

- Ben Robertson Community Center, 2753 Watts Dr.
- Kennesaw City Hall, 2529 J.O. Stephenson Ave
- Southern Museum of Civil War & Locomotive History, 2829 Cherokee St.
- Smith-Gilbert Gardens, 2382 Pine Mountain Rd.

For more information, call the Kennesaw Parks & Recreation Department at (770) 422-9714.